WELCOME

Pastor's Message

In the book Steps to Christ, the writer Ellen White describes prayer simply as talking to God as to a friend. I see this definition as an invitation to engage in prayer, which is to have a conversation with God who cares for us and wants what is well. Having this understanding does not overlook the central role that prayer plays in the fight between good and evil. There is a sense of helplessness that is revealed in prayer even as there is a sense of striving against self that happens in prayer. This Sabbath as we begin a conversation on prayer, I pray that God will lead us to a deeper connection as a church family, through prayer.
